

Please do not allow the NAB to ban satellite radio from transmitting local information such as traffic and weather. This is just a desperate attempt by them to preserve their market share and not have to adapt to this new technology.